

Eli's Message - More Than Your Mistakes - Tuesday Morning Service

- 1.) Have you ever struggled with believing that one mistake or weakness determined who you are? Why do you think it's so easy to let our failures become our identity?
- 2.) How does it encourage you to know that God continued to work in David's life even after his failures?
- 3.) What is the difference between having a struggle and allowing that struggle to define who you are?
- 4.) What changes have you seen in your life since following Jesus—or what changes would you like God to begin making in your life?
- 5.) What would change in your daily life if you truly lived from a redeemed identity instead of a mistakes-identity?
- 6.) What are some practical ways we can partner with God as He continues to transform us?

Brigette's Message - Integrity - Wednesday Morning Service

- 1.) Daniel chose to honor God even in situations where it would have been easier to compromise. What are some situations you face where doing the right thing can be difficult?
- 2.) The message talked about finding our value in popularity, appearance, accomplishments, or approval from others. Why do you think these things are so tempting? How have you seen social media contribute to this struggle?
- 3.) If your friends, teammates, classmates, or family had to describe your character, what would they say? What is one character trait you believe God is developing in your life right now?
- 4.) Daniel was consistent. What are some practical ways you can build consistency in your relationship with God after camp? Between reading the Bible, prayer, and having good friendships - which of these do you feel you should grow in the most right now?
- 5.) What is one "hard right" decision God may be asking you to make? Some examples from the message included:
  - Telling the truth when lying would be easier
  - Refusing to participate in gossip
  - Standing for your faith even when it's unpopular
  - Honoring your parents
  - Choosing integrity in school
- 6.) What is one step you can take this week to begin living a life of integrity?

Eric's Message - Lust of the Eyes - Thursday Morning Service

- 1.) What are some ways social media or screens can shape what we start to want or think we need to be happy? (Think about comparison, trends, or influencers)
- 2.) Genesis 3 says the fruit looked "pleasing to the eye." What are some examples of things that look good to the eye but can lead us in the wrong direction?

- 3.) What does it look like in real life to “guard your eyes” or “ instead of dwelling on things that tempt you?
- 4.) How does knowing your identity is in Christ change the way you handle comparison, temptation, or wanting what others have?
- 5.) What is one practical way that we can protect our eyes and our hearts from coveting, and instead find contentment in Christ.

Pastor Brandon’s Message - The Gospel - Monday Evening Service

- 1.) What stood out to you most from tonight’s message, and why?
- 2.) Do you ever find yourself believing you have to “earn” God’s approval, or right-standing with Him? Why or why not?
- 3.) What area of your life have you been wrestling with, trying to be “good enough” for God, and how did tonight change your perspective on your approach?
- 4.) If Jesus is your Lord and savior, what is one decision you’d like to make differently starting now?

Carrieann’s Message - Deny Yourself - Tuesday Evening Service

- 1.) What are some ways culture wrongfully encourages us to put ourselves first, and how do those messages differ from Jesus' command to "deny yourself" in Luke 9:23?
- 2.) The message talked about two versions of ourselves: the "striving self" and the "surrendered self." Which one do you see showing up more in your life right now? Why?
- 3.) Why do you think comparison is such a powerful trap for students your age? How does comparing ourselves to others keep us from focusing on Jesus?
- 4.) “We’ve settled for complacency, when Jesus wants us to be connected”... Where have you been complacent recently? How does connection with Jesus transform your outlook on complacency?
- 5.) If denying yourself means turning the mirror away from yourself and toward Jesus, what is one practical thing you can do this week to become more of a "surrendered self"? What might be difficult about making that change, and how can your group help you follow through?

Carson’s Message - Take Up Your Cross Daily - Wednesday Evening Service

- 1.) What is one thing in your life that feels like it competes with Jesus for your commitment? Why?
- 2.) What did you come to camp carrying (the boxes) that was weighing you down? What have you chosen to do with that thing?
- 3.) What is a practical step you can take to drop the boxes and pick up your cross daily?
- 4.) Who do you have around you that can keep you accountable to choosing the cross, rather than choosing things with an expiration date?
- 5.) What decision do you not want to delay when you leave this room?

Pastor Justin’s Message - Follow Me - Thursday Evening Service

- 1.) As you reflect on your walk with God, would you say that you have been more of a follower of Jesus or a fan of Jesus - and why?
- 2.) What does it look like for you to be "fishers of men", sharing the goodness of God and being a light to others?
- 3.) How can you influence others in your schools, friend groups, sports teams to draw nearer to God?
- 4.) What do you feel like God has for you next? What is He calling you to do? What is your next step?
- 5.) Leaving camp tomorrow, how has God changed you during your time here?
