

COMMUNITY CAMP LEADER

What is Community Camp?

Our mission is to connect students to the person of Jesus. Community Camp facilitates this mission by fostering an atmosphere where Jesus is taught, sought after, and ultimately connected with. During this week, we will intentionally limit distractions with the goal of focusing on and developing the students' relationship with Jesus.

Dates:

July 13-17, 2026

Monday-Friday

Location:

Camp Cotubic

2158 C-25, Bellefontaine, OH 43311

DESCRIPTION:

Community Camp Leaders are responsible for leading a small group of students throughout the week of camp, ensuring they are cared for spiritually, relationally, and physically.

Community Camp Leaders will have serving responsibilities throughout each day, providing opportunities for students to be connected to the person of Jesus and connected with one another.

RELATIONSHIP EXPECTATIONS

- Community Camp Leaders are expected to adhere to the Community Camp Tiers of Communication.
- Community Camp Leaders are expected to engage with COF staff, pastors, volunteers, students, visitors, and Camp Cotubic staff with the utmost respect and handle any conflict in private.
- The loyalty and support to the Pastors and other COF staff (as it pertains to COF mission and values) is required, regardless of one's own philosophies.

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES: BEFORE CAMP

- Reach out to each parent/guardian of the students in your small group within the given time frame.
- Be expectant of communication from COF staff, including but not limited to the Next Gen Director and your Campus Next Gen Coordinator, responding in a timely manner.
- Complete updated background check and Child Safety Training.
- Attend Community Camp Leaders Orientation.
- Attend Community Camp Leaders Training & Prayer.
- PRAY for the students in your small group and for the entire week of camp!

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES: DURING CAMP

- Be attentive to the spiritual, relational, and physical needs of the students in your small group throughout the week.
 - Spiritual: Give students opportunities to share how they are doing spiritually both in your breakout sessions and one-on-one with you. Look for opportunities to pray for your students.
 - Relational: How are your students doing emotionally? How can you help connect them with other students? How can you be available to them to talk through what they are experiencing?
 - Physical: If one of your students has a medical need or is simply missing an essential item for the week, be available to help them receive what they need.
- Be intentional with each element of camp, making it your top priority to create an environment for students to be connected to the person of Jesus and with one another.
- Ensure the Community Camp Schedule is being followed by students, including but not limited to ensuring students attend each meal, ensuring students attend each service, etc.
- Effectively lead a breakout session with your small group of students each morning and evening following services.
- Fulfill each of your assigned serving responsibilities throughout each day.
- Redirect students and resolve any conflict among students, utilizing the Community Camp Tiers of Communication.
- Track attendance for your group of students at each attendance checkpoint.

ROLE RESPONSIBILITIES: AFTER CAMP

- Follow up with the students in your group, checking in on how they are doing post-camp.
- Fill out the Community Camp Feedback Form within the time frame requested.

IMPORTANT DATES

June 17: Community Camp Leaders Orientation

July 11: Community Camp Leaders Prayer + Departure/Arrival Training

July 13-17: Community Camp 2026

COMMUNITY CAMP 2026 SCHEDULE

- See the Community Camp Schedule tab.
- Your individual serving responsibilities will be scheduled through PCO Services.

CREW RALLY

- We will have our Crew Rally each morning at 7:30 a.m. These will be located outside the Log Building.
 - (8:00 a.m. on Friday)

SERVICE RESPONSIBILITIES

Follow Tiers of Communication as needs arise with students.

- Be present in the auditorium, engaging with students, during each pre-service.
- We will have 4 Community Camp Leaders assigned to the Hype Team for each service.
- Stay attentive to the needs of students during each service.
- Redirect students as needed.
- Stay attentive to the Holy Spirit, encouraging and praying over students as He leads you.
- Be prepared to fulfill any responsibilities given by the service communicators.

MEALS

Point Person: Vickie Woodyard

- Camp Cotubic provides staff for serving meals, as well as preparing and cleaning up the Dining Hall.
- We will have 2-4 Community Camp Leaders assigned to managing the meal line for each meal.
- Be intentional with connecting with students and leaders during each meal.

FREE TIME RESPONSIBILITIES (AFTERNOON & NIGHT)

Point Person: Annalise Brubaker (Afternoon), Jake Loranzen (Night)

- Connect relationally with the students and leaders you get to interact with
 - How is your day going?
 - What stuck out to you in this morning's/last night's message?
 - What's been your favorite part of camp so far?
 - What other Free Time activities are you going to get into?
 - What are you looking forward to?
- Arrive for your Free Time assignment at least 5 minutes prior to your scheduled time to serve.
- Foster a physically and relationally safe environment for students.
- Connect students with other students.
- Follow specific guidelines for your assigned Free Time activity.

COMMUNITY CAMP GAMES

Point Person: Matt Hounshell, Isaac Hargis

- Most Community Camp Leaders will be given a role within Community Camp Games. Specific details will be provided for each role.
- As a Team Leader, lead your Team Gathering each day, connecting with students, preparing them for the day's games, and helping them grow together as a team.
- Refs and Games Coordinators will be responsible for setting up, facilitating, and tracking the scoring for their respective games.

ATTENDANCE TRACKING RESPONSIBILITIES

Point Person: Brigitte Filbrun

- Submit attendance for your breakout group/team through the COF app for each attendance checkpoint.
- Stay attentive to your group of students throughout the week of camp, ensuring they are present during each element of camp.
- Formal Attendance Checkpoints (Submit on app):
 - Buses (Monday/Friday)
 - Team Gatherings (Morning)
 - Dorms (Night)
- Informal Attendance Checkpoints:
 - Dorms (Morning)
 - Breakouts (Morning)
 - Games (Afternoon)
 - Breakouts (Evening)

DORM RESPONSIBILITIES

Follow Tiers of Communication as needs arise with students.

Point Person: TBD

- Community Camp Leaders are responsible for ensuring a safe space is created in the dorms for students to grow in their relationship with Jesus and to experience connection with other students and leaders.
- Ensure the dorm space is relatively clean and tidy throughout the week. Students are responsible for tidying their own space, but they may need some guidance. Be intentional with morning and evening clean-up times.
- If assigned as Dorm Leader:
 - Lights on at 7:00 a.m. each morning. Lights out at 11:30 p.m. each night. Exceptions: Friday morning will be 7:30 a.m. wake up time. Anything communicated by the Next Gen Director.
 - Facilitate morning and evening clean-up.
 - Ensure dorms are clear for each meal. All students MUST attend each meal: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner. This doesn't have to be you specifically, but ensure at least one of your leaders is checking the dorm during each meal. (Ex. Assign each of the leaders in your dorm to a meal for the week.)
 - Take attendance in your dorm each night. Submit attendance through the COF app.

LEADING BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Point Person: Carson Clark

- After each service, Community Camp Leaders will lead a "breakout session" where they will talk with students about what they learned through the message, and how they are going to apply these learnings to their lives.
- See Leading a Breakout Session tab.

MORNING REFLECTION

Point Person: Carson Clark

- Following morning services on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, students will be given the opportunity to seek the Lord through prayer and journaling. During this time, leaders are encouraged to do the same, preparing for your morning breakout session through prayer.

CAMP OFFICE

Camp Office Ministry Lead: Angie Filbrun

- The Community Camp Office will be open from 8:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m. You may need to visit the office for the following reasons:
 - Connecting with a student who has arrived late (or left and has come back)
 - Accompanying a student who will be checking out of camp
 - Signing one of your students up for baptisms or testimonies
 - Any attendance questions
 - Any questions regarding visitors

LEADERS CENTER

- There will be snacks and drinks available for you throughout each day, as well as coffee provided in the morning. Please feel free to visit the Leaders Center in between your responsibilities.
- Coffee will be ready each morning at 7:00 a.m.

COMMUNICATION

- Keep your phone available for any pertinent communication during the week of camp. Community Camp Leaders are responsible for all information and responsibilities delivered via texts and messaging systems.